The petitioner – appellant moved an application before the learned single Judge seeking direction to seventh respondent to allot the students of B.Ed. for the academic year 2004-05. The learned single Judge found that as on today, the petitioner college is not a permitted college and the competent authorities have not permitted establishment of college. Hence, the allotment of students to such a college is not possible. We do not find any illegality in the order passed by the learned single Judge.

Writ Appeal is misconceived and is dismissed.
